Recliner Chair Operating Instructions

WARNING

— To prevent product damage:

Damage will occur to the mechanism, if the leg rest is forced closed from the 2nd position. The leg rest must be returned to the 1st position and then closed.

To Operate the Leg rest:

1. The recliner chair is equipped with a two-position locking leg rest for customized seating comfort. Simply put physical strength on the back and armrest to extend the recliner mechanism. You may stop in any one of two positions. The closed position is for relaxing reading (Figure 3). The 1st position is slightly inclined (Figure 4). The 2nd position is slightly more inclined (Figure 5).
2. Bring the back upright by closing the leg rest before getting out of the unit.
